The Education & Scholarship Silent auction will take place on February 9-10, 2010 during Trade Show hours at the APPL Public Lands Partnership Convention. Donors receive acknowledgment in the auction program and on bidding sheets. Donations are tax deductible in accordance with applicable laws.

Products, services, and gifts that showcase public lands are requested for the Education & Scholarship Auction. Work with your staff and board members as well as agency, vendor, concessioner, and local partners to donate unique public land packages! Be creative – host a board meeting for another association at your site, offer an educational program and include dinner with your board and/or staff, or ask your partners, board members, vendors and local businesses to contribute services and products to a gift package. Other popular items that receive top bids include gift certificates, handmade crafts, and jewelry. Bidders also like items that are compact, unbreakable, and light weight for easy travel.

Send a separate form for each donation item by January 8, 2010 for inclusion in the printed auction program distributed on-site to:
