

Support the Professional Development of APPL Members by Donating Items to the 2008 APPL Auction.

APPL's auction events are a focal point of the convention and generate an enthusiastic response from both attendees and exhibitors. Proceeds support the APPL Education and Scholarship Fund, which provides scholarships for staff and board members of APPL member organizations to attend trainings throughout the year and our annual convention. Donors receive acknowledgment in the auction program and on bidding sheets. All donations are tax deductible in accordance with applicable laws.

Showcase your public land site by working with your staff and board members as well as agency, vendor, concessioner, and local partners to package unique public land travel experiences! Be creative – host a board meeting for another association at your site, offer an educational program and include dinner with your board and/or staff, ask partners, board members and local businesses to participate by contributing items or services, and consider providing shipping as part of your donation. Other popular items that receive top bids include gift certificates, handmade crafts, and jewelry. Bidders also like items that are compact, unbreakable, and light weight for easy travel.

Send a separate form for each donation item by February 1, 2008 for inclusion in the printed auction program distributed
